

Professor Nigel Mason

- Central Academic Staff
- Professor of Physics
- Faculty of Science
- Department of Physical Sciences

Professional biography

I am Professor of molecular physics in the Department of Physical Sciences. I was Director of Research in Department of Physics and Astronomy 2003-9 and Associate Dean for Research, Enterprise and Scholarship Faculty of Science 2009-14.

Degrees 2002 DSc University of London 1987 PhD (University College London) 1983 BSc First Class Honours (University College London) Awards 2008 Honorary Degree Leopold Franzens University, Innsbruck 2007 Made Officer of the Order of the British Empire (OBE) 2001 Visiting Professorial Fellow to Queens University of Belfast 1999 Institute of Physics; Irish Branch touring lecturer 1999 Appointed Guest Professor, University of Innsbruck, Austria 1998 Elected Europhys of European Physical Society 1987 Carey Foster Research Prize (University College London) 1986 Member Scholarship (University College London))

2. APPOINTMENTS AND EXPERIENCE 2009 - 2011 Non Executive Director of Institute of Physics Publishing 2002 - present Professor of Molecular Physics, The Open University 2000 -2002 Reader (University College London) 1998-2000 Lecturer (University College London) 1990-1998 Royal Society University Research Fellow (University College London) 1988-1990 SERC Postdoctoral Fellowship (University College London) 1986-1988 SERC Research Assistant (University College London)